reatest against United States Steel, hich yielded three points before own, while losses almost as great were recorded by other standard shares. The movement in Sieel was concurrent with the formal opening of the hearing in this city of the suit of the government against that cor-poration, a fact which may have exercised something more than senti-mental influence. Other factors that helped in the unsettlement included the probability of fresh political com-plications arising from the presiden-tial primaries in Maryland, the forthcoming government crop report, from which little of an encouraging charac-er is expected, the strike of the west-ter is expected, the strike of the west-ern railway freight handlers and the increasing loss and privation caused by the disastrous floods along the Mississippi river. To all these might be added the fact that the recent bull market had evidently gone stale and that technical conditions as a whole favored a reversal of the inopportune movement, which at no time had more favored a reversal of the inopportune movement, which at no time had more than a modicum of public support. In the early afternoon the list manifested some improvement in most branches, with especial strength in Reading, while Steel recovered little more than a part of its fall. The selling pressure relaxed decidedly and the market then appeared to be undergoing a process of assimilation. There was also some realizing of profits by the shorts, whose operations in the early period doubtless accelerated the decline. The partial rally was followed by another drive against Steel, which sent it to its lowest of the day, which sent it to its lowest of the day and Union Pacific also reflected fur-

There is a strong possibility that John Paul Jones of Cornell, the mile record holder, will be hiking around through the Maine woods with a lot of camp boys, instead of leading or camp boys, instead of leading a bunch of world famous athletes around the track at the Olympic games this summer. At any rate he has engaged to spend the summer in helping to manage the Kineo Camps for Boys, on Long lake, Harrison, Me.

In view of all that is now being written about Jones being sure to be a member of the Olympic team, his friends arsert it is no work. friends assert it is no more than jus-
